

NMHIMA Health Information Scholarship

$500 Awarded in April 2019 - Deadline to Apply: April 1, 2019

The New Mexico Health Information Management Association is offering a $500.00 scholarship to assist health information majors, and/or any other related majors. Please submit this application to be considered for this great opportunity!

Eligibility Requirements:

- Major in Health Information or related discipline (Associate or Bachelor level)
- Part time or full time student, not in their last semester, attending an accredited college
- Minimum GPA of 3.0

Application Requirements:

- Complete & submit this application with the necessary documents by April 1, 2019
- Documents needed: Current course schedule, with major identifiable & unofficial transcripts or GPA proof of 3.0 or higher
- Application and the required documents must be submitted to nmhima@gmail.com

APPLICATION

Name (First & Last)
Address (Street, City, State, Zip Code)
Email
College Attending
Major
Expected Graduation Date
GPA
Personal Statement: (250 – 350 words about yourself, why you have chosen your major, and your educational and career goals)

Once we have received your application we will send you a confirmation email. Applicant will be determined based off of above requirements. You will be notified by April 4th 2019 if you were selected for this award. Award of $500 will be given at the NMHIMA 2019 Annual Spring Conference on Friday, April 12, 2019.